

Heritage Fair 2023 Baking Contest

Whether it's memorized, digitized, or scribbled on a tattered, butter-stained page passed through generations, we want to hear the story behind your family's favorite recipe!

Please tell us about your recipe, why it means so much, and who is the family member who created it, baked it better than anyone, or made it even better!

How to Enter

Please Choose a Category:

Pies

Cakes

Cookies/Bars

Breads/Muffins

Name:

Address:

Email:

Phone:

Tell us the story of your recipe

Please limit your story to 300 words or less

A large, empty, rounded rectangular text box with a light gray border, intended for the user to write their recipe story. The background of the entire page is a blurred image of various cookies, including a large round one in the center, a smaller round one with a pinkish tint in the bottom left, and a chocolate chip cookie in the bottom right.

Type Your Recipe Below

Please limit your recipe to 300 words or less

A large, rounded rectangular text input area with a light gray border, set against a background of various cookies. The cookies are scattered around the input area, including a large round one in the center, a smaller round one in the bottom left, and a larger one in the bottom right. The background is a soft-focus image of several cookies on a white surface.

Now Let's Get Baking!

When: Sunday, July 9, 2023, 9:30-11 AM

Where: McHenry County Historical Society & Museum @ the West Harmony School House - 6422 Main Street, Union

What: Your scrumptious masterpiece will be judged on taste, appearance, and texture, and after the contest, the remaining product will be portioned and sold at our bake sale.

How: Download this form, complete all required fields, and email it to kbetke@comcast.net, or print and complete it and bring it with you on July 9th!

Entries must have all portions completed to be accepted.